

Melanie Sokol

PHOTOGRAPHY

SESSION AGREEMENT

By presenting payment, you acknowledge and agree to the following:

- A non-refundable retainer is required to reserve your space on the calendar.
- In the event of a no-show or cancelled appointment, your retainer will be forfeited.
- One reschedule will be granted with 24 hours notice.
- Appointments are time-sensitive, if you are more than 15 minutes late to your session without advance notice, you will be considered a no-show.
- Sessions delayed by late arrival will not extend past the originally scheduled end time.
- In the event of severe weather or act of god, I reserve the right to reschedule your session.
- I am not liable for limitations due to location including but not limited to hospital policy, federal, state, and local laws including DOD regulations, and/or rules enforced by private property owners.
- Client is responsible for any fees or permits required for session location.
- I, nor anyone acting on my behalf, is liable for illness, injury, death, loss or damage of property that may result from or during your session.
- All images created as a result of your session remain the property of Six Eight Productions.
- Six Eight Productions holds the right to use all images at the photographer's discretion.
- Digital galleries will be available for 7 days. Six Eight Productions is not responsible for storing images after gallery expiration. There will be a $50 fee to reopen expired galleries providing images have not been purged.
- Altering/Editing/Screenshotting/Sharing/Printing/Using images in anyway without express consent of the photographer is a violation of federal law and will be treated as such.